CALL FOR PAPERS

IWoDA is an international workshop jointly organised by the SCIMITAR team (integrated in the DISCOURSE & IDENTITY research group, based at the University of Santiago de Compostela (Spain) and the MuStE research group at University of A Coruña (Spain). The aim of IWoDA is to promote multidisciplinary research on the analysis of discourse, pondering and exploring the multifaceted properties of English-language texts/discourse from different perspectives (quantitative, qualitative, linguistic, cognitive, psycholinguistic, contrastive, sociolinguistic, critical, literary, cultural, filmic, semiotic, etc.).

Guest speakers will provide case studies, tools and methodologies in order to upgrade the skills necessary to do discourse analysis in different settings and for different purposes, thereby promoting life-long learning and encouraging synergies between academics.

The topic for this year's edition is "Constructing and deconstructing discourse in English: Key features, challenges and innovations". The following keynote speakers will be at IWoDA'18:

- Marcus Callies (University of Bremen)
- Liesbeth Degand (UCLouvain)
- Pascual Pérez-Paredes (Cambridge University)
- Paul Rayson (Lancaster University)

We invite submission of abstracts for papers on any topics relating to the analysis of discourse in English (as well as in contrast with other languages) from diverse frameworks:

- TOPIC 1. Constructions, discourse markers and discourse relations
- TOPIC 2. Corpus-based Discourse Analysis
- TOPIC 3. Variation and multidimensional analysis of (specialized) language(s)
- TOPIC 4. Learner language and Computer Assisted Language Learning

The deadline for the submission of abstracts is June 9th, 2018. Acceptance will be notified by June 25th. Slots for papers will be 20 minutes, including time for questions. The language of the papers will be English.

Abstract maximum length 300 words including references and keywords.

To submit your abstract access <https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=iwoda18>.
